

navysite.de

COMMANDER CARRIER DIVISION FOUR

Dale Harris
Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy

graduated from naval academy june 1920;
received wings december 1926, pensacola, florida;
executive officer, scouting squadron six, uss enterprise;
duty in plans division of bureau of aeronautics;
executive officer, uss copahee;
chief of staff of comfairquonset;
commanding officer, naval operating base, adak, alaska;
commanding officer, uss wright;
chief of staff, chief of naval air training, pensacola, florida;
command of comfairseattle and fleet air wing four, naval station,
whidbey island, washington;
commanding officer of naval station, kwajalein;
chief of naval air base training, pensacola, florida;
legion of merit, bronze star and presidential unit citation.

Andrew McB. Jackson, Jr.
Captain, U. S. Navy

graduated from naval academy class of 1930;
received wings may 1932, pensacola, florida;
commanding officer, uss timbalier;
commanding officer, carrier air group eight, uss bunker hill;
operations officer staff of admiral arthur w. radford;
commander task group in task force 58;
director of plans coordinating division in bureau of aeronautics;
deputy director of military applications in atomic energy commission;
chief of staff commander task force 77;
assistant chief of staff, commander air force pacific fleet;
naval aid to secretary of the navy;
legion of merit and distinguished flying cross.

COMMANDING OFFICER

Paul Masterton
Captain, U. S. Navy

graduated from naval academy june 1933;
first ship uss mississippi;
served on various ships and stations—uss utah, uss selfridge, uss fox, uss kane, uss greene, nrotc brown university and nas pensacola;
commanding officer of patrol bombing squadron 151;
wwii commanding officer of fighter-bomber squadron 151;
commander, tinian unit, search and reconnaissance;
navigator of uss tarawa;
commanding officer of air transport squadron three;
executive officer of naval air station, pensacola, florida;
staff of commander sixth fleet;
commanding officer of naas, whiting field, florida;
legion of merit with combat "v", distinguished flying cross with gold star
and air medal with five gold stars.

CHIEF OF STAFF, CARRIER DIVISION FOUR

Valdemar G. Lambert
Commander, U. S. Navy

graduated from university of louisiana, 1936;
received wings at pensacola, florida 1937;
first ship, uss boise;
served as commanding and executive officer of anti-
submarine squadrons, east coast;
commanding officer of squadrons vc-52 and torpedo squadron 15;
assistant head of personnel division of bureau of
aeronautics;
commanding officer, air group 15;
staff duty with commander fleet air, alameda, california,
and commander carrier division three;
assistant branch head of aviation current plans and programs for the chief of naval operations;
navy cross, silver star, legion of merit with combat
"v", air medal with seven gold stars, distinguished flying cross with two gold stars, commendation ribbon with combat "v" and presidential citation.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Harold C. Miller
Commander, U. S. Navy

graduated from the naval academy june 1939;
first ship uss boise;
sound instructor, uss rathburne;
received wings january 1942, pensacola, florida;
executive officer of squadron vn8d8-a;
commanding officer of squadron vn8da-a;
assistant superintendent aviation training, pensacola,
florida;
commanding officer, patrol squadron 73;
commanding officer, amphibious squadron four;
assistant air officer, uss saipan;
administrative officer, naval air basic training command,
pensacola, florida;
staff, compacdivmats, deputy director;
chief of operations, compacdivmats;
training officer, navairsta, pensacola, florida;
operations officer, uss ticonderoga;
executive officer, uss ticonderoga.

Captain Neal Morris (MC), USN
Medical Officer

Captain Raymond J. Graves (DC), USN
Dental Officer

navysite.de DEPARTMENT

Commander Thomas McClellan, USN
Navigator

Commander James Cooper, USN
Operations Officer

Commander Stanley R. Holm, USN
Air Officer

Commander Joseph E. Denon, USNR
Engineering Officer

HEADS

Commander John D. Custer (SC), USN
Supply Officer

Lt. Commander Norman E. White, USN
Gunnery Officer