

HEAVY ATTACK SQUADRON

FOUR DETACHMENT BRAVO

LCDR L. S. Kollmorgen
Officer-in-Charge
April to July 1963

One of several detachments of Heavy Attack Squadron FOUR home based at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Whidbey Island, Detachment BRAVO comprises the heavy attack phase of Carrier Air Group FIVE and TICONDEROGA. Nick-named the "BRAVO BANDITS" for their aggressiveness and can-do ability, they since have more than justified the name.

The detachment operates the twin-jet A-3B "Skywarrior" heavy attack bomber, the largest aircraft capable of operating from a carrier deck. Capable of speeds in excess of 600 miles per hour, carrying a large quantity of ordnance, and aerial reconnaissance, the A-3B is a powerful deterrent to aggression.

Detachment BRAVO is commanded by LCDR L. S. Kollmorgen who relieved CDR R. W. Legare on 2 April 1963.
